- 1        Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
- 2        concurring),

1     SECTION 1. REMOVAL OF UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES
2                 FROM HOSTILITIES IN THE REPUBLIC OF
3                 YEMEN THAT HAVE NOT BEEN AUTHORIZED
4                 BY CONGRESS.

5     (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

6                 (1) Congress has the sole power to declare war
7     under article I, section 8 of the Constitution.

8                 (2) Congress has not declared war with respect
9     to, or provided any specific statutory authorization
10    for, United States military participation in the con-
11    flict between military forces led by Saudi Arabia and 12    the United Arab Emirates (the “Saudi-led coali-13    tion”) against the Houthis in the Republic of 14    Yemen, and the United States has not designated 15    Yemen’s Houthis under any authorization for use of 16    military force, despite members of the United States
17    Armed Forces having provided intelligence sharing
18    and mid-flight aerial refueling for Saudi-led coalition
19    warplanes conducting airstrikes against the Houthis
20    since March 2015.

21                 (3) President Obama reported to Congress on 22    October 14, 2016, consistent with the reporting re-
23    quirements of the War Powers Resolution (Public 24    Law 93–148; 50 U.S.C. 1541 et seq.), that the 25    Houthis attacked United States ships operating in 26    international waters on October 9 and October 12,

1       2016, and the United States responded to threats
2       against United States vessels, personnel, and free-
3       dom of navigation with strikes against three radar
4       facilities in Houthi-controlled territory.

5                 (4) Section 8(c) of the War Powers Resolution
6       (50 U.S.C. 1547(c)) defines the introduction of 7       United States Armed Forces to include “the assign-
8       ment of members of such armed forces to command,
9       coordinate, participate in the movement of, or ac-
10      company the regular or irregular military forces of 11      any foreign country or government when such mili-
12      tary forces are engaged, or there exists an imminent
13      threat that such forces will become engaged, in hos-
14      tilities”.

15                 (b) REMOVAL OF ARMED FORCES.—Pursuant to sec-
16      tion 5(c) of the War Powers Resolution (50 U.S.C.
17      1544(c)), Congress hereby directs the President to remove 18      United States Armed Forces from hostilities in the Repub-
19      lic of Yemen, except United States Armed Forces engaged 20      in operations authorized under the 2001 Authorization for 21      Use of Military Force (Public Law 107–40; 50 U.S.C.
22      1541 note), not later than 30 days after the date of the 23      adoption of this concurrent resolution unless and until a

- 1 declaration of war or specific authorization for such use
- 2 of United States Armed Forces has been enacted into law.
